

August 7, 1941.

Mr. Ed. Gottlieb,
509 Market St.,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Gottlieb:

I certainly do not feel I should have to stand in line and buy tickets, even for service charge and tax at Yankee Stadium.

I am returning these sent me by Frank.

Thanks just the same, if I must stand in line, I would just as soon pay the entire admission.

Please get me the information about ball players for August 31st.

Very truly yours,

P. S. My Secretary kept a ticket.